Don't miss our conversation with former Destiny's Child singer and Grammy Award-winning artist Michelle Williams. She'll speak openly about overcoming mental health challenges to gain clarity across every aspect of her life—including her financial life.

You'll hear some of the powerful and personal insights revealed in her new book, Checking In, and her story could help you or someone you know.

Your host for the evening

Jane Schwartzberg, Managing Director, Head of UBS Strategic Client Segments

This event is open to all. Please share the invitation with friends, family and colleagues.

About Michelle Williams

Michelle rose to stardom as a member of the R&B megagroup, Destiny's Child, critically acclaimed as one of the best music groups of all time. Michelle's music career also includes four successful solo albums and performances in the Broadway hit shows Aida, The Color Purple, Chicago, What My Husband Doesn't Know and Fela! Her new memoir, Checking In: How Getting Real About Depression Saved My Life—and Can Save Yours is slated to release in May 2021.

Presented by the UBS Athletes and Entertainers group and the Women's Strategic Client Segment team.
