

The financial breakdown

Strategic exit planning for business owners

Join us for a focused discussion on business succession and exit planning with Brent Rippe, Managing Partner at RKCA. This session will explore how business owners can prepare for a future transition, build enterprise value, and position their company for an optimal outcome, whether planning to exit in the near term or years down the road.

We'll breakdown

- Key drivers of business valuation and common factors that detract from value
- Understanding the difference between selling a business today vs. building toward a higher-value exit
- Aligning personal, business, and financial goals ahead of a transition
- Developing a compelling “story” around your business to attract the right buyers and maximize outcomes
